Job Description

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES:
Provide family-centered services using an evidence-based parenting education curriculum to families determined eligible for the Help Me Grow and/or MIECHV Home Visiting programs.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:
- Effectively manage a caseload of families enrolled in the HMG and/or MIECHV programs. This includes completing required home visits, timely documentation of family and provider contacts and conducting all screenings and evaluations.
- Provide parent education through the use of the appropriate evidence-based curriculum as required by ODH program regulations.
- Follow the Help Me Grow and/or MIECHV Policies and Procedures in the delivery of program services.
- Complete developmental screenings with children as appropriate.
- Coordinate communication and information with medical providers and educate caregivers about the child’s development and strategies for successful outcomes.
- Facilitate and participate in the development of the Family Plan (FP) and subsequent reviews.
- Identify other community service providers and resources to assist in meeting the family’s needs and make referrals as appropriate.
- Coordinate, facilitate and monitor the timely receipt of services for the family.
- Coordinate and facilitate transition of families exiting the Help Me Grow and/or MIECHV programs.
- Participate in Child-find events, health fairs and other activities to promote the Help Me Grow and MIECHV programs.
- Document all services rendered in the ODH Early Track system in an accurate and timely manner.
- Maintain a billable productivity rate of at least 75% of total hours worked when assigned Help Me Grow families.
- Attend staff meetings and trainings as required.
- Demonstrate cultural competency and advocate for HMG and/or MIECHV families to insure that parent/child rights are upheld and that ethical practices are adhered to at all times.
- Maintain client confidentiality as required by the Ohio Department of Health and ACCAA policies.
- Perform other duties as assigned.
