Kent State’s bright future continues to evolve and take shape – all over campus. As you tour campus, you’ll see new construction and improvements to our facilities that are transforming our spaces for living and learning. This map shows you where to park and the best way to get to University Library to begin your campus tour.

Please allow extra time to get to the library for your tour. We appreciate your patience as these construction projects continually improve your academic experience at Kent State.
- From Campus Center Drive, Turn left onto Summit Street and then turn right on to Risman Dr..
- Turn left into the parking lot in front the Kent Student Center. If the lot is full, overflow parking is available across the street.
- Follow the red dotted line to the University Library.
- A tour guide will greet you in the lobby and direct you to the information session before the tour departs.
