Global Market Day
5:00 to 7:00 pm | Kent Student Center
Participants will present business ideas to a panel of judges for feedback, prizes.
Office of Global Education

Tuesday, Nov. 15
Change is in Their Hands: Another Kind of Girl (Jordan)
9:00 to 10:00 am | 300 White Hall
International film and panel discussion
Center for International and Intercultural Education (CAEST)
Research Opportunities at the Primate Research Institute (PRI), Kyoto University.
3:00 to 5:00 pm | Business Administration Building, Room 117
An introduction to the work of young women in Jordan.
Department of Anthropology

Wednesday, Nov. 16
Acirema Workshop
8:30 am to 12:00 pm | Stark Campus
A workshop designed to sensitize participants to the difficulties that international students encounter in their quest for a U.S. education.
Office of Global Education
Discover the Kent State Florence Experience
9:30 to 10:00 am | The Gerald H. Read Room (BH3e, Room 200)
KSU students will discuss their experiences, followed by a Q & A session. Refreshments.
College of Education, Health & Human Services
Northeast Ohio Regional GIS Day
10:00 am to 1:00 pm | Kent Student Center Ballroom
Learn how geographic technologies are impacting Northeast Ohio and the world.

Gobble, Gobble! Global!
11:30 am to 2:00 pm | Center for Undergraduate Excellence (CUE)
Learn about study abroad opportunities, as well as cultural festivals and thanksgiving traditions from around the world. Refreshments.
College of Arts and Sciences
Change is in Their Hands: Present Tense (Tanzania)
12:00 to 1:00 pm | 300 White Hall
International film and panel discussion
Center for International and Intercultural Education (CAEST)

Global Engagement Experiences
2:00 to 3:00 pm | 206 Henderson Hall
Informal information for students at all levels of nursing education. Refreshments.
College of Nursing

Cultural Cafe: Peru
4:00 to 5:00 pm | Kent Student Center, Room 204
An event designed to expose the Kent State University community to the sights, sounds, and tastes of Peru around the world.
Office of Global Education

Asé Workshop
5:30 to 6:30 pm | Kent Student Center, Room 204
Asé Xpressions will teach a dance to a song named Kukere.
Asé Xpressions

Conversations
2:30 to 3:00 pm | Lost Leader’s Lounge at Kent Student Center
A space for students to practice their Spanish with native speakers while learning games and interesting topics.
Spanish and Latitute Student Association (SALSA)

International Village Thanksgiving Dinner
6:00 to 8:00 pm | Glass Lounge, Clark Hall
An introduction to Thanksgiving for the international Village community, including a presentation of the history of Thanksgiving.
Office of International Students Affairs and International Village

Doings Successful Global Business
7:00 to 9:00 pm | KSU Hotel and Conference Center
Global business speaker will discuss how to present yourself in the international arena.

Fashions of Southern Africa
Wednesday, Nov. 16

The Mini Thanksgiving Night for International Students/Scholars and their recent global education experience in South Africa.
KSU Fashion Museum

Thursday, Nov. 17
Acirema Workshop
10:00 am to 12:00 pm | Kent Student Center Ballroom
A workshop designed to sensitize participants to the difficulties that international students encounter in their quest for a U.S. education.
Office of Global Education

CAEST International Students Appreciation Luncheon (CISAL 2016)
11:00 am to 1:00 pm | Read Room, White Hall
International students from different countries will present their experiences and humorous stories while a representative from ResAirways Japan will address the global issues impacting Northeast Ohio and the world.
Office of Global Education

Global Tourism Design Contest featuring Mongolia
11:30 am to 1:30 pm | Kent Student Center Ballroom
Refreshments.
Center for International and Intercultural Education (CAEST)

International Cook-Off
6:30 to 8:30 pm | Kent Student Center Ballroom
International dishes prepared by six cooking teams competing for First Place and votes for your Fan Favorite.
Office of Global Education

Change is in Their Hands: EE Congress (South Africa)
7:30 to 8:30 pm | Read Room, White Hall
International film and panel discussion.
Center for International and Intercultural Education (CAEST)

Friday, Nov. 18
International Student Reception
2:00 to 4:00 pm | Moulon Hall Ballroom
Round-table discussions will feature key expressions and humorous stories while international cuisine is served.
College of Public Health

Korean Cultural Night
7:30 to 9:30 pm | Kent Student Center, Room 204
Students from South Korea will present their cultural appetizers.
Office of International Students Affairs and International Student Council

Breakdown Breaking Stereotypes: Women and Sexism in the 21st Century
5:30 to 7:30 pm | Kent Student Center, Room 204
An active presentation workshop that will discuss ways that would help counter stereotype-based judgments relative to women and their experience with cultures and nations.
KSU International Women’s Group and Office of International Students Affairs

Oman’s 45th National Day of Celebration
6:30 pm | Kent Student Center, Room 204
KSU International Students Association & KSU International Students’ Group and Office of International Students Affairs

Dance the Hate Away
7:00 to 8:00 pm | Twin Towers, Studio A
A celebration in honor of commemorating the Orlando Pulse shooting with guest speaker - Holly Merriman, Director of LGBTQ and Women Studies.
Center for International and Intercultural Education (CAEST)