PAN-AFRICAN FESTIVAL + THINK WEEK
April 19-28, 2017

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19
6:00pm   Blackness Is... Art Exhibit and Reception
         Black Arts Collective
         Umbaaji Art Gallery

7:00pm   Educate, Motivate Organize: Organizing for Change in Today’s America ORH 214
         lecture by Rukia Lumumba

THURSDAY, APRIL 20
7:00pm   Word + Sound + Power
         with Ephraim Nehemiah, Kenae Hughes, and Mwatabu Okantah ORH 214

Blackeyed: Using poetry and theatre to explore Black Experience with Dr. Mary Weems ORH 214

FRIDAY, APRIL 21
6:00pm   “I Will Survive” a movement-based Science of Survival workshop with Kofiata Shakur ORH 250

         A Musical Journey, ORH 214:

7:30pm   African Drumming & Dance
         with Ase Xpressions

         Bringing back the Roots
         with reggae vocalist Ishmael Turner

         Movement Tunes Tonight
         with saxophonist Bilal Sunni-Ali

THE CENTER OF PAN-AFRICAN CULTURE

SATURDAY, APRIL 22
11:00am  Pan-African Marketplace
         -8:00pm   (Art + Crafts + Food)

         Health + Wellness, ORH 214:
         Environmental Racism
         presentation by Jaynell Nicholson

Wholistic Health Academics 101: A Community Perspective
         an interactive workshop with Dr. Kokayi Patterson

1:00pm   African Dance Workshop
         with Barefeet ORH 250

2:30pm   Theatre for Education + Community Engagement
         Venus excerpt and discussion with Dr. Amy-Rose Forbes-Erickson and the Pan-African Theatre Ensemble; Theatre games for community building with Dr. Asantewa Sunni-Ali ORH 214

4:00pm   UHURU magazine launch + reception
         Umbaaji Art Gallery

7:00pm   Progressive Hip Hop Night
         with Carl E. Story and Friends ORH 214

For more information contact the Center’s director,
Dr. Asantewa Sunni-Ali, asunnial@kent.edu
PAN-AFRICAN FESTIVAL + THINK WEEK
April 19-28, 2017

THINK WEEK - BLACK UNITED STUDENTS

MONDAY, APRIL 24
7:00pm Holistic Healing and Meditation Workshop
with Holistic Life Foundation
ORH 250

TUESDAY, APRIL 25
7:00pm Film: Moonlight
Location TBA

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26
7:00pm Pro-Black Workshop
with Sensei Aishitemasu
ORH 250

THURSDAY, APRIL 27
7:00pm Ebony Achievement Awards
KSU Student Center Ballroom

FRIDAY, APRIL 28
8:00pm-6:00am Dusk til Dawn Party
raise money for Black United Students scholarship
Location TBA

In collaboration with Black Arts Collective, Ase Xpressions, Barefeet, and Black United Students
PAN-AFRICAN FESTIVAL + THINK WEEK

April 19-28, 2017

THE CENTER OF PAN-AFRICAN CULTURE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19

6:00pm Blackness Is... Art Exhibit and Reception
Black Arts Collective
ORH Umbaaji Art Gallery

7:00pm Educate, Motivate Organize: Organizing for Change in Today’s America ORH 214
lecture by Rukia Lumumba

THURSDAY, APRIL 20

7:00pm Word + Sound + Power with Ephraim Nehemiah, Kenae Hughes, and Mwatabu Okantah ORH 214
Blackeyed: Using poetry and theatre to explore Black Experience with Mary Weems ORH 214

FRIDAY, APRIL 21

6:00pm “I Will Survive” a movement-based Science of Survival workshop with Shakur Sunni-Ali ORH 250
A Musical Journey, ORH 214:

7:30pm African Drumming & Dance with Ase Xpressions
Bringing back the Roots with reggae vocalist Ishmael Turner
Movement Tunes Tonight with saxophonist Bilal Sunni-Ali

SATURDAY, APRIL 22

11:00am Pan-African Marketplace -8:00pm (Art, Crafts, and Food)

11:00am Wholistic Health Academics 101: A Community Perspective an interactive workshop with Dr. Kokayi Patterson. Opening Presentation on Environmental Racism by Jaynell Nicholson ORH 250

2:00pm Theatre for Community Building + Engagement an interactive workshop with Dr. Asantewa Sunni-Ali. Opening Presentation and Venus overture with Dr. Amy-Rose Forbes-Erickson and the Pan-African Theatre Ensemble

4:00pm Community African Dance Workshop with Ase Xpressions

6:00pm UHURU magazine launch + reception (Umbaaji Gallery)

8:00pm The Hip Hop Cypher with Carl E. Story and Friends

THINK WEEK: APRIL 24-28

7:00pm April 27- Ebony Achievement Awards

8:00pm April 28- Dusk til Dawn Party raise money for Black United Students scholarship