CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Nancy M. (Johnson) Resh Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship is designed to honor the memory of Professor Nancy Resh who taught American Sign Language at Kent State Trumbull. It seeks to promote students who are studying ASL, Deaf Education, ASL/English Interpreting, or to support the educational goals of a Deaf student, who may be pursuing any major.

Please contact the scholarship chairperson, Linda Mahmood, at linda.mahmood63@gmail.com for more details on the program. Scholarship applications should be sent to the following:

Nancy M. (Johnson) Resh Memorial Scholarship
Attn: Linda Mahmood, Chairperson
22455 Lake Road, Apt. 308A
Rocky River, Ohio 44116
Application Requirements

Purpose:
- To promote the study of American Sign Language as a major or minor
- To promote the study of Deaf Education or ASL/English Interpreting as a major or minor
- To promote the educational goals of Deaf students
- To provide financial support for Kent State Trumbull students to cover the costs of tuition, fees, books and supplies

Eligibility:
- Must be a Kent State Trumbull student
- Must be an undergraduate student at any class level
- Must be taking at least six (6) credit hours at Kent State Trumbull during the semester for which the scholarship is awarded
- Must have a GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Must be a student pursuing a major or minor in ASL, Deaf Education, ASL/English Interpreting, or a Deaf student pursuing any major
- May be a Deaf or Hearing student according to the guidelines stated above

Application Requirement:
- Resume
- Most recent transcript
- Two letters of recommendation from professional references
- Interview with scholarship committee members
- Video/Essay Questions: (Please limit answers for each question to 250 or send a video in ASL that is 5 to 7 minutes in length.)
  - How will you use the scholarship opportunity to advance your career goals?
  - How will you use your education to make a difference in the Deaf and Hearing communities?

Award:
- Up to $500.00

Deadline:
- April 1, 2016

Kent State University – Trumbull would like to thank you for your interest in the Nancy M. (Johnson) Resh Memorial Scholarship.